Friday Class Meetings

Next Tuesday in Chapel: Dr. Wilbur M. Smith

LIBRARY CHAPEL VESPER SERVICE. The Student Council is happy to announce the inauguration of the Vesper Worship and Prayer Service, to be held in the Library Chapel Tuesday and Thursday. All students are invited. Student Council has established a Chairmanship for the Library Chapel to coordinate activities there and to make arrangements for the Vesper Service. Ernest Chan has accepted this position for the remainder of the year. Please schedule any group meetings in the Library Chapel through him. A. Aronis

VESPER MEETINGS starting this week--a time for quiet meditation, prayer, songs and devotion (30 min.). Place: Library Chapel. Time: Tuesday, 5:00 p.m.--worship, song prayer. Thursday, 5:50 p.m.--quiet music; 6:10 p.m., devotion, song, prayer. E. Chan.

THE SPRING BANQUET: ONLY 48 TICKETS LEFT. That's right--312 out of 360 tickets sold in the first two days. If necessary, we will be able to add only three more tables, or 24 seats. Tickets are on sale all this week immediately after chapel. REWB

Students who desire to go to the Spring Banquet but do not have the money are reminded to see Miss Brown in the President's Office. The Student Aid Fund makes available a limited amount for this purpose. REWB

Beginning April 27, the Library will be open Saturdays from 8:00--12:30, except during exams. CBA

SENIORS. Our class will decide on the class gift at the meeting this Friday. At our last meeting we voted that each member of the class donate $5.00 toward this gift. Please send your suggestion for a gift to Al Fry before this Friday, and your share in the gift to Al by May 7. At the class meeting we shall also discuss the Senior Retreat. E. Griffin

MUSLIM WORLD PRAYER FELLOWSHIP meets Wed., April 24, 10:20 a.m., in Room 303. Bob Bason will be sharing some of his experiences last year in the Middle East. CL

CHANGED YOUR DATE TO THE SPRING BANQUET? Since the Decorations Committee is making place cards for each person at the Banquet, it is absolutely necessary to have the name of your date in the Banquet Book at the front desk. If you have changed seats or dates, be sure to change the book. This will save embarrassment. Suzy might not understand Gertrude's name on the place card. REWB

PRESENTATION OF CANDIDATES AND STUDENT COUNCIL. We want to try something new in chapel this Wednesday. A number of people have been wondering just what goes on in Student Council, while others have asked that we make elections more meaningful by having something more than just brief introductions of candidates. We feel that Student Council can play a very strategic role in voicing the student point of view here at Fuller and on Wednesday we would like to explain how this can be done. We also want to give each candidate a chance to introduce himself, and have asked the candidates for the offices of President, Vice President, FMF and PE to express themselves with respect to the election which will be this Thursday, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Student government is taking on increasing significance and this trend will continue especially if there is support from the student body and communication between the student body and student council. Please make it a point to be at the assembly on Wednesday. A. Aronis

CLASS ELECTIONS. Elections for class officers will be this Friday in the class meetings. Juniors will meet in Room 301, Middlers in Room 303, Seniors in the Chapel. There will also be other important matters of business to be considered. AA

DEFERRED PAYMENT is due on Friday, April 26.

New books received by the Library will be displayed in the Reading Room for one week before being put in the stacks. Advanced reservations for these books will be taken during the week. CBA

LOADED MAIL BOXES. If your mail box is stuffed on Tuesday and Wednesday with biographical sketches, platforms of action and other election materials you can blame Student Council. We have strongly encouraged each candidate to provide a write-up on himself which will help us vote more intelligently on Thursday. AA

THE SPRING BANQUET IS SEMI-FORMAL. This means dark suits for guys and formals or fancy dresses for gals. Flowers and boutonnieres are definitely in order. REWB

DEBATE between Bernard Ramm, James Robinson and Daniel Fuller, on Hermeneutics, at Southern California School of Theology, May 4, 1963, 9:30--12:00. The first fifty students who plan to go, and sign up at the receptionist's desk, will receive a synopsis on the subject, drawn up by the participants. CWG

RESERVED BOOKS. May we remind you that only one reserve book is allowed to a student at a time. Also, only one advance reservation is to be held at a time. CBA

Anyone interested in the position of yearbook editor for the 1963-64 school year, please see Joel Stolte. There is a scholarship involved in the position. I would like to discuss details of publication with you before leaving school. JAS

TRACT OF THE WEEK: "The Matchless Pearl"--a moving missionary story of a South Seas pearl diver showing the error of working for salvation. This tract is a favorite of many. JW

INVITATION FROM HEBREW UNION COLLEGE. The Student Body President of Hebrew Union College in Los Angeles has extended an invitation to students at Fuller and Claremont School of Theology to join together for a day of seminar and discussion. It is hoped that six or seven students from Fuller will be able to attend the seminar to consider informally various issues which will have bearing upon our service in the ministry. Some of the topics suggested are: "Faith and Works in Judaism and Christianity," "Student Ministerial Problems," "The Role of the Clergy in American Society," and "Why Enter the Ministry?" This will be sometime in May, probably on a Saturday. If you are interested and would like more information, please see Don Freeman. ABA

WHEN ASKING YOUR DATE to the Spring Banquet, we suggest that you use this universally-socially-acceptable form: "Hello _____, bet you can't guess who this is. Oh, you recognized me." (Alternate: "Well, this is _____.") Whatchadoingfriday-thethirdofmay? Well, you wouldn't wannagotothespringbanquetwithme, wouldya? Say, that's great!" (Alternate: "Well, thanks anyway.") "It starts at 7 o'clock. Wear somethin' that lilacs will go good with. I'll see ya. Oh, by the way, you can drive, can'tcha? Great! Goodbye!" (Minor variations to fit specific cases are acceptable.)
